General information

We welcome submissions addressing the ASECU 2014 International Conference theme:

TOWARD POST-CRISIS PROSPERITY: ALTERNATIVE ECONOMIC POLICIES AND INSTITUTIONAL REFORMS IN SOUTH AND EASTERN EUROPE

The conference objectives are:

- Analyzing alternative economic policies meant to stimulate post-crisis prosperity;
- Assessing the existing institutional reforms in South and Eastern Europe and proposing ways for improvement;
- Debating the alternative models of economic growth and development particular to emerging economies;
- Determining the main challenges for the financial sector and searching for ways to overcome them;
- Establishing mechanisms to support small and medium sized entities and to enhance their role within the economy;
- Analyzing the role of the financial reporting standards and practices in the post-crisis recovery process;
- Assessing the particularities of the post-crisis business environment in South and Eastern Europe;
- Searching for new business opportunities while aiming for sustainable development.

Accepted papers will be published in the conference proceedings only after their presentation in the Conference.

The Editorial Board of South Eastern Europe Journal of Economics (SEEJE), the official journal of ASECU, after having the agreement of the authors, plans to publish selected conference papers following a blind refereeing process.

The conference official language is English.
